Some of the underlined sections below may contain mistakes. Mistakes may be in grammar and usage, punctuation, capitalization or spelling. If there is a mistake, make the correction above it. If there is no mistake, write OK above the underlined word or phrase.

When I was growing up, Uncle Oscar told the best storyies when we went camping! First, he would wait until it was dark. then he would gather all of the cousins around the campfire. He would always include animals in the stories, and make noises. It was fun to watch his face his stories were never scary. Finally when we were getting tired, he would end with our favorite story, "Little Blue Riding Hood."
